The “Mercato delle Gaitte”

The Mercato delle Gaitte derives to the ancient division of Bevagna (a little municipality in Perugia province). This hamlet is considered one of the most beautiful hamlet of Italy. It is divided into four districts named Gaitte, this was the typical medieval organization of the town. The aim of the event is to show the medieval day life, following historical documents and studies. For ten days Bevagna is completely immersed in the Middle-Age: ancient “botteghe” with craftsmen at work using traditional tools, the inhabitants dressing medieval costumes, plays and food in a special atmosphere. This tour is the chance to live for a day a realistic and intense experience of the medieval life. Don't lose it!
